Students are always looking forward to getting their backpack. Thank you!

Thank you for all that you do for the children!

Teachers don't know if students have food insecurities at home, but based on the financial hardships families are living extra help is always appreciated.

Thank you for giving our students that little extra they might not have at home. Students always look forward to their snacks and are excited to have these at home.

The bags get a bit heavy for some of the kiddos.

My student hates to miss out on food day. I save it for her. She loves the fresh fruit.

Thank you for all you do!
